Marcus Brooke of Sonifex, introducing the new CM-CU1 commentator unit and Redbox RB-IPE IP extender, went further: 'We joined the Ravenna Alliance this year – it's the way it's going to go. Dante is equally good in terms of professional quality IP audio but we've followed the Ravenna route because it seems to be more of a broadcast solution.'

But while the Ravenna flags were hard to miss, not everyone was flying them. 'This year is more about audio over IP,' said Stagetec Australia MD Treva Head. 'I think it's a general theme – us with Dante, other people with their systems.'
